A SUCCESSFUL MEETING

Of the W. C. T. U. Monday Evening—
Officers Elected.

At a special meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union held in the L. T. L. Room Monday afternoon a county organization was effected by the election of the following officers:

President, Miss L. D. Shuck; Vice President, Mrs. I. B. White; Recording Secretary, Mrs. D. W. Prosser; Corresponding Secretary, Miss Ettie V. Shires; Treasurer, Mrs. A. W. Smith of Schellsburg.

Monday evening a temperance mass meeting was held in the Court House, at which time Mrs. Stella C. Masters of Pittsburg made an address which proved a source of great inspiration to the large and interested audience present. Many telling facts were given by the speaker out of her wide experience in city reform work, and a strong appeal was made to the Christian voters for their support in the great Local Option campaign about to be waged in our state. Miss Florence E. Kiser, local W. C. T. U. President, was chairman of the evening. Spirited music was furnished by members of the Loyal Temperance Legion.

From Bedford Mrs. Masters goes to other points in the county on organization work, in which she has been most successful during her Bedford County tour.

NO STATE HIGHWAY

Important Bills Vetoed by Governor
Stuart.

SCHOOL CODE FALLS

And Capitol Park Extension is Deferred—Lack of Funds the Executive's Reason, He Says.

The school code, the Philadelphia-to-Pittsburg highway and the capitol park extension bills were vetoed by Governor Stuart last Friday.

The big road was his own project, but he disapproved it rather than cut $3,000,000 from the state appropriations to charities.

In vetoing the school code the Governor said:

"The bill drafted by the Pennsylvania State Educational Commission and submitted to the Legislature was so changed by amendments during its passage through the Legislature, many of the best features of the original draft being eliminated and numerous amendments made which destroyed the harmony of the bill by introducing many contradictory provisions, that it is more than doubtful whether an approval of the bill would be of any benefit to the cause of education in the state.

"Irrespective of this, however, the bill, as certified to me, under the provisions of the constitution, shows that, in connection with the proviso to section 203, the printed word 'city' on line 26 was stricken out with the pen and the word 'district' in red ink written above it. Shortly after the receipt of the certified bill I was informed by certain members of the Pennsylvania Educational Commission that the bill, as it finally passed the Senate, contained the printed word 'city' and did not contain the word 'district,' and that it finally passed the Legislature in this form.

Underhand Work Somewhere

"In view of this information I examined into the matter and satisfied myself that the bill as finally passed did not contain the word 'district,' but did contain the word 'city' in the sentence under consideration. To approve this bill, therefore, would be to approve a bill that did not pass the Legislature in the form in which it was presented to me for executive action. For these reasons the bill is not approved."

The Governor explains his disapproval of the state road bill in the following language:

"This bill authorizes the construction of a state highway from Philadelphia to Pittsburg and makes an appropriation of five million dollars or so much thereof as may be necessary for the purpose of carrying into effect its provisions. The bill was passed by the Legislature upon my recommendation, supporting as I believed a constructive policy and for the interests of the people of the commonwealth.

"As I have been compelled to make large reductions in the appropriations made by the Legislature for the reason that they are in excess of the revenues of the state, I have concluded, after serious consideration, that in order not to interfere with the appropriations for the maintenance of the public schools, the indigent insane, the charities of the commonwealth and the consumptive poor, and as it has been necessary for me to withhold my approval from other meritorious appropriation bills, this bill is not approved."

Money Needed Elsewhere

Of the capitol park extension bill the Governor says:

"The object of this bill is a proper one, but it is a question which will have to be considered very much from the point of view of the resources of the state. As I have been compelled to make large reductions in appropriations made by the Legislature in order to prevent a deficit, and in order that the appropriations to the public schools, the caring for the insane and the charities of the commonwealth should not be interfered with, I am reluctantly compelled to withhold my approval from this bill. For these reasons the bill is not approved."

TROLLEY NEWS

Progress in Lining Up Finances—A Matter of Days.

Concerning the work on the Altoona-Bedford Trolley Road the Altoona Tribune says, "the financing of a railroad such as that proposed between Altoona and Bedford is not done in a few days. It takes time, and progress may be reported in lining up the finances for the building of the road that Altoona people are now much interested in and want to see built and put in operation. There is scarcely a doubt now but that matters will have so shaped themselves the course of the next couple of weeks that construction operations will be started before the summer is half over.

"John F. Kauffman, the secretary of the right-of-way committee of the proposed railway, recently received a telegram from the financial interests in New York to the effect that the necessary papers are now being prepared and that Mr. Carr, who is one of the promoters of the road working with the Altoona people, will be there next Monday to lend his assistance in the course of the next couple of the work. This indicates that the proved by the New York bankers. It will now be but a matter of days until something definite will be announced concerning the building of the road."

Dr. Samuel G. Statler

Dr. Samuel Graham Statler died at his home at Alum Bank Thursday evening, May 13, after a brief illness, aged 83 years, one month and seven days. By his death the state loses its oldest practicing physician and Jefferson Medical College, of which he was a graduate, its oldest alumnus.

He was graduated from Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia, in 1851, since which time he had practiced continuously in the northern part of Bedford County, first at Schellsburg, then at Spring Meadow, then at Alum Bank, where he located 25 years ago. At St. Clairsville in 1857 he was married to Emma J. Beegle, who died July 5, 1896. Of this union the following children survive: Maude, wife of Aaron Garber, of Harmon, W. Va.; Dr. Frank B. Statler of Johnstown, Fred W. of Rainsburg, Herbert A. at home, Charles of Frostburg, Md.; J. Earle of New York, and Emma and Bertha at home.

Dr. Statler was a member of the Presbyterian Church, and a Mason. In 1908 he was vice president of the Pennsylvania State Medical Society and was a former president of the County Medical Association.

The funeral took place from his late residence on Saturday, May 15, interment being made in the Schellsburg Cemetery. Services were conducted by Rev. J. W. Zehring of St. Clairsville, Rev. Chambers of Alum Bank and Rev. Clayton of Schellsburg.

Deceased was for 27 years division wickmaster for the B. &amp; O. R. R., and prior to that time was a sailor. He stood high in Masonry and was connected with lodges in Maryland and West Virginia.

His wife and one daughter survive. The body was taken to his home Monday morning for interment.

A NEW PROPOSITION

Owners of Buildings Should Sit Up and Take Notice.

Josiah Neal &amp; Co., of Bedford, report the following names of well-known citizens of Bedford County whose buildings they have protected from lightning by their famous, safe copper cable, which they guarantee by a contract of Free Insurance for five years of $500 in case their rods fail to protect the buildings from damage by lightning.

The above company is the strongest in the U. S. in the business of furnishing protection from lightning. They refer, as to their financial standing and ability to fulfill their guarantee contracts in the fullest, to the First National Bank and Hartley Banking Co., both of Bedford.

PRETTY DOUBLE WEDDING

Many Guests Present at Mann's Choice Weddings on Wednesday.

The event of the season occurred at Mann's Choice at high noon on Wednesday, May 19, in the Methodist Episcopal Church, when Edgar J. Burkett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mason Burkett, and Miss Lilly M. Mowry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Mowry, of Mann's Choice, and Austin W. May, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. May, of Mann's Choice, and Miss Ada E. Mowry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis W. Mowry, of Buffalo Mills, were united in holy wedlock by the pastor, Rev. G. W. King, in the presence of over four hundred guests. The church was magnificently decorated, there were three arches trimmed in evergreen, white ribbon and white wedding bells, on the large arch, under which the brides and grooms were to stand, were two large white wedding bells and two wreaths of wild crab-apple blossoms mounted on a background of evergreen. Back of the arch in the pulpit room was a beautiful bank of potted plants and flowers of many varieties whose sweet aroma scented the entire church.

At a few minutes before noon the bridal party left the home of J. C. Mowry in a carriage trimmed in white drawn by two milk-white steeds. As they approached the church the beautiful strains of Lochengrin's wedding march pealed forth, played by Miss Daisy May, sister of one of the grooms. The procession consisted of Rev. G. W. King, the four ushers, Clyde Holler, Clarence Diehl, Artie Hufford and Harvey Miller; the flower girls, Marie Mae and Ruth Reed, who were dressed in white, carrying baskets of American Beauty roses, made a most exquisite picture, and the brides and grooms. The brides are first cousins, as also are the grooms.

At 12 o'clock Rev. King began the ceremony, Mr. Burkett and Miss Lilly Mowry being married first. Austin W. May acted as best man and Ada E. Mowry as bridesmaid. Immediately afterward the couples exchanged positions and Mr. May and Miss Ada Mowry were married, the former couple acting as best man and matron of honor. The beautiful ring ceremony was used in both services. The brides wore white pongee dresses and white gloves. Their heads were veiled in white chiffon and bedecked with lilies-of-the-valley. They are both very handsome young ladies and on this delightful occasion were most charming. The grooms wore the conventional black. After hearty congratulations, the bridal party marched to the church door, where a large wagon draped in white and drawn by an old threshing-machine engine waited to give them a jolly ride. Amid the music of steam whistles, sleigh bells and bass drums, the caravan moved off around the town on a sight-seeing expedition while showers of confetti covered them. They were finally landed at J. C. Mowry's where a sumptuous wedding dinner consisting of all the good things of the season was served. The party left on the evening train amid a shower of love for Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia and other eastern cities. They will be gone about two weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Burkett will begin house-keeping at Rockwood, and Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Corriganville, Md. Both couples are employed as telegraph operators. B. &amp; O. Railroad and will be married about the first of June.

ALL TIRED OUT

Hundreds More in Bedford in the Same Plight.

Tired all the time;
Weary and worn out night and day.

Back aches; side aches.
All on account of the kidneys.
Must help them at their work.

A Bedford citizen shows you how:
Mrs. Margaret Brightbill, W. Pitt
St., Bedford, Pa., says: "I suffered from rheumatism and various symptoms of kidney complaint for years, at times being so lame and stiff that

I could scarcely get about the house.
My kidneys were very weak, the secretions being unnatural and I felt tired and languid all the time. Finally when Doan's Kidney Pills were recommended to me, I procured a box at Dull's Drug Store and they gave me such great relief that I continued their use. I can say that my experience with Doan's Kidney Pills has been satisfactory in every way."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo,
New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

WANT RAILROAD

Citizens of Bedford and Blair Counties Appeal to

HAVE CAPITALS CONNECTED

Holidaysburg and Bedford Company Could Complete Its Line at Small Cost.

Prominent land owners and manufacturers of Blair and Bedford Counties are uniting in a petition addressed to the state railroad commission praying that the Holidaysburg and Bedford Railroad Company be compelled by legal process to construct its line connecting the capitals of the two counties, under penalty of having its charter right abrogated. This company is a subsidiary corporation of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. Samuel P. Rea of Philadelphia is its president. Three months ago the company was directed by the railroad commission to install a daily train service between Bedford and Imber and to replace the wooden bridges with steel bridges.

People who own timber and mineral lands in the territory tributary to this proposed railroad are financial sufferers by reason of this procrastination in completing the railroad. One Blair County manufacturing firm that owns land both in Bedford County and West Virginia, pays a higher freight rate for shipments from the former point, although the distance is less than one-third of the distance from the southern point. Among the prominent petitioners are Mayor Samuel M. Hoyer of Altoona, W. H. Herr, S. D. Reighard, D. M. Bare Paper Company, J. L. Hartman, Esq., Burgess Edgar Hale Jacobs, Claude Jones, Esq., James S. Bobb and Lynn A. Brum, president of the Citizens' National Bank. Following is a copy of the petition:

To the State Railroad Commission, Harrisburg, Pa.: The undersigned citizens of Pennsylvania, being residents of the Counties of Bedford and Blair, respectfully represent:

That a charter was granted by the commonwealth of Pennsylvania more than five years ago, authorizing and empowering the Bedford and Holidaysburg Railroad Company to construct a railroad from a connection with the Dunning's Creek Branch of the Pennsylvania Railroad at Cessna, Bedford County, to a connection with the Morrison's Cove Branch of the Pennsylvania Railroad at Brook's Mills, Blair County.

That the Bedford and Holidaysburg Railroad Company is a subsidiary of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

That the railroad from Cessna to Imber, a point on the line about one-half way distant between the terminal points, has been constructed and is being operated.

That practically all the grading has been done on the remaining portion of the road and the same could be completed without great cost.

That the uncompleted condition of the road is a great injury to the community.

Therefore they pray your honors to investigate the subject and to proceed to secure the construction of the remaining portion of the road or cause the franchise rights thereto to be abrogated.—Altoona Tribune.

will change a sickly baby to a plump, rosy child in summer as well as in winter. Only one cent a day—think of it—and it's as nice as cream.

THE STANDARD OF THE WORLD

Round Shoulders

Round shoulders are easily cured in young people. You must make a radical change in your sleeping position. In fact, you should really learn to sleep without any pillow at all. During every moment of the day bear your infirmity in mind. Stand straight and look up, not down. Look people in the eyes as you walk. Acquire the habit of holding the head up. Walking about your room for half an hour each day with a book balanced on your head will help you to stand straight.

Everybody is likely to have kidney and bladder trouble. In fact nearly everybody has some trouble of this kind. That is the reason why you so often have pains in the back and groin, scalding sensation, urinary disorders, etc.—that's your kidneys. The best thing to do is to get some of DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills right away. Take them for a few days or a week or so and you will feel all right. In this way, too, you will ward off dangerous and possibly serious ailments. They are perfectly harmless, and are not only antiseptic, but they also quickly by their healing properties. Send your name to E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, for a free trial box. They are sold here by all druggists.

Of Interest To Women.

To such women as are not seriously out of health but who have exacting duties to perform, either in the way of household cares or in social duties and functions, which seriously tax their strength, as well as to nursing mothers, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has proved a most valuable supporting tonic and invigorating nerve. By its timely use, much serious sickness and suffering may be avoided. The operating table and the surgeon's knife would be believed seldom have to be employed if this most valuable women's remedy were resorted to in good time. The "Favorite Prescription" has proven a great boon to expectant mothers by preparing the system for the coming of baby, thereby rendering childbirth safe, easy, and almost painless.

Bear in mind, please that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is not a secret or patent medicine, against which the most intelligent people are quite naturally averse, because of the uncertainty as to their composition and harmless character, but is a medicine of known composition, a full list of all its ingredients being printed, in plain English, on every bottle wrapper. An examination of this list of ingredients will disclose the fact that it is non-alcoholic in its composition, chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine taking the place of the commonly used alcohol, in its make-up. In this connection it may not be out of place to state that the "Favorite Prescription" of Dr. Pierce is the only medicine put up for the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses and ailments, and sold through druggists, all the ingredients of which have the unanimous endorsement of all the leading medical writers and teachers of all the several schools of practice, and that too as remedies for the ailments for which "Favorite Prescription" is recommended. A full list of these endorsements will be sent to any address, post-paid, and absolutely free if you request same by postal card, or letter, of Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. Constipation is the cause of many diseases. Cure the cause and you cure the disease. Easy to take as candy.

USEFUL TO KNOW

Bread pudding is good flavored with chocolate.

Preserved tomato sauce poured over vanilla ice cream is delicious.

If you do not heat the oranges when making an orange pudding it will not taste bitter.

A teaspoonful of orange marmalade in a cup of tea is very good and a change from the slice of lemon.

The cushioned back of a Morris chair has been found valuable in the sickroom to place back of the invalid in bed.

When the fire refuses to burn on damp mornings, try putting a newspaper in the ash pan under the grate and lighting it.

Break the eggs into a small-sized funnel. The whites will all pass through into the bowl below and the yolks will be left in the funnel.

Rinse the mouth with tepid water in which there is a spoonful of lemon juice. This will whiten the teeth, which can be brushed with scented dentifrice.

Use soap-pumice once a month to cleanse the teeth from tartar. Dip a soft piece of wood into the pumice and carefully scour all blemishes from the teeth, using care not to scratch the gums.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the favorite little liver pill, gentle and sure. Sold by all druggists.

A Minute at Panama

Every two minutes a ton of coal is burned up at Panama, every minute twelve carloads of rock and gravel are torn from the earth, every hour 1,666 pounds of dynamite are exploded in mountain and jungle, every minute $124 is spent for labor.—Putnam's Magazine.

Combining Colors

When two colors do not look well together separate them with white whenever possible. Many persons possess an idea that every combination can be "toned" with black. This is a mistake.

Black lowers the tints when placed in contact with them, but it becomes dull in itself, besides imparting a certain amount of dullness to the colors. White, on the contrary, takes a tinge of the colors it seeks to modify, thus lessening the dead whiteness and at the same time lessening the intensity of the tones with which it is combined.

Farmers, mechanics, railroaders, laborers rely on Dr. Thomas' Eucalyptic Oil. Takes the sting out of cuts, burns or bruises at once. Pain cannot stay where it is used.

Perfectly Cooked Rice

To get best results wash the rice through several waters. Have a large kettle of boiling water, fully two quarts of water to each half pint of rice. Sprinkle the rice in slowly, so that the water may not be chilled. The boiling must be rapid; in this way the grains are washed apart. Boil rapidly, without covering the kettle, for twenty minutes; add one-half teaspoon of salt, then drain in a colander. Serve as a vegetable.

To Prevent Damage From Moths

As a preventive of moths in cases containing clothing, there is nothing like making the cases in which they are packed so tight that the moth can not enter to lay her eggs, from which eggs the larvae come. I prefer naphthaline balls to camphor, but if the garments are wrapped in newspapers and put into a protected case and this sealed with strips of paper pasted over the cracks at every possible point of entry, to keep out the moths, there will be no danger of the moths developing. Camphor or naphthaline balls can be used in the packages also, but these alone will not prevent the occurrence of the moths, nor destroy the moth larvae after they have entered. The chief point in protecting fabrics from destruction by moths is to keep them in a vessel where the little winged moth can not enter to lay its eggs. An aid to this is the use of some substance like the balls above mentioned, which act as a repellent. After the clothing is attacked destroy the pests at once by fumigating with bisulphid of carbon.

The State Zoologist of Pennsylvania recommends one pound of this liquid to each 100 cubic feet of space, either sprinkled on cloth or poured into shallow vessels placed on it.

Fancy Poultry Business

The fancy poultry business is not an experiment, but has come to stay. Poultry shows are the very life of the poultry business. They keep pure bred poultry before the public and interest the many people who are dealing in pure bred poultry. There are thousands of farmers who have never seen a poultry show, and a great many who are not posted on pure bred chickens at all, says the Kansas Farmer. Thousands of farmers do not know that there are numerous papers that are devoted exclusively to pure bred poultry.

Everyone who is interested in poultry should attend some poultry show this winter and, if possible, show some of their pure bred fowls. The poultry show is the very best school to learn all about the standard requirements of the different fowls. To read all about poultry is one thing, but to see it is another. You can learn more in a poultry show in one day than you can by reading a month. A great many farmers have gotten their first impetus in the raising of pure bred poultry from visiting the poultry shows.

What Money Can't Buy

Money can't buy everything: There are no admission tickets to a sunset; you wouldn't trade the look in your boy's eyes when he greets you at night, for a million dollars of anybody's money; and if you keep a well-furnished mind you can go into it any time you like as you would into a child's playground and amuse yourself watching your thoughts play leapfrog with each other.—Lillian Pascal Day, in Success Magazine.

A Good Medium

During 1908, The Philadelphia Record printed nearly a million lines of display advertising in excess of that published by any other Philadelphia newspaper. This supremacy is due to the fact that The Record has a larger morning circulation than any other Philadelphia newspaper. The same qualities of "Record" circulation that make the exploitation of merchandise pay, make "The Record" the ideal medium for summer resort advertising. The proprietors of resort hotels and summer boarding-houses seeking patronage from Philadelphia and vicinity, should be represented in its advertising columns.

WHEN GRANDPA WAS A BOY

No auto cars went whizzing by. When grandpa was a boy; No aeroplanes sailed to the sky. When grandpa was a boy; The people did not live in flats, There were no merry widow hats And babies were not joining frats. When grandpa was a boy.

They had no leg shows on the stage. When grandpa was a boy; Bridge whist had not become the rage. When grandpa was a boy; They flashed no messages through space, The lady was not in disgrace. Who had a child around the place. When grandpa was a boy.

Waists were not buttoned down behind. When grandpa was a boy; No meat trust soaked it to mankind. When grandpa was a boy, The country had no "Uncle Joe" To say things should be thus or so, No Aldrich to say yes or no, When grandpa was a boy.

There were no shrieking suffragettes. When grandpa was a boy; The ladies puffed no cigarettes. When grandpa was a boy; When married women ran away With married men they did not claim. To be affinites nor pray, Therefore, to be absolved from blame, When grandpa was a boy. —From the Barnhart Flyer.

Many weak, nervous women have been restored to health by Foley's Kidney Remedy as it stimulates the kidneys so they will eliminate the waste matter from the blood. Impurities depress the nerves, causing nervous exhaustion and other ailments. Commence today and you will soon be well. Pleasant to take. Ed. D. Heckerman.

That Trolley Road

A great deal of speculation exists as to the proposed trolley line from Holidaysburg, this county, to Bedford, and just when, if ever, work will be commenced on this much needed and much advertised project remains a mystery, only known to those on the inside. All the right of way has been granted and it is said sufficient capital is in sight to build the road. Already $60,000 have been subscribed by those located along the route to be traversed by the road, and it is to be hoped that something will be done in the matter this summer.

The way to build a trolley line, Messrs. Projectors, is to build it and if this one possess any merit, or is to benefit the two counties interested, in all conscience let us have the road. Temporarily in this way can only injure its prestige and, possibly, its prospects, as such delay causes uneasiness among the proposed beneficiaries of the road as to the good faith of the projectors. Again we say, make the dirt fly.—News, Roaring Spring.

RECIPES

Coffee Caramels
To one pound of brown sugar allow one cup of strong coffee, a half cup of cream and an ounce of butter. As soon as cooked sufficiently to be brittle when dropped in cold water, pour into buttered pans and mark with a buttered knife into squares before the mixture gets quite cold.

Beef Loaf
One and one-half cups of bread crumbs to two pounds of ground meat or hamburger steak, three level teaspoons salt, half a teaspoon of pepper, or, if preferred, use poultry seasoning to taste. Mix with milk and water, as much as can be used and have it hold together. Bake about an hour.

Salted Peanuts
Shell and take the skin from freshly roasted peanuts. In a baking pan melt butter, stir the peanuts into this until well coated, then roast, stirring often, until light brown. Draw the pan to the door of the oven for two minutes, then turn the nuts into a colander and shake hard to dislodge superfluous salt. Spread on a large platter to get dry and crisp.

Affinity Candy (Requested)
Take 2 1/4 cups of granulated sugar, one-half cup of water, one-half cup of corn syrup and one-half teaspoon of cream of tartar and boil until nearly done. Then separate candy in half and pour the beaten whites of two eggs over one-half stirring constantly, letting the other half cook until brittle, then add it to other half. Add one cup of chopped nuts and beat until nearly stiff and spread on a buttered plate. The secret lies in constant beating.

Rhubarb Fool
Prepare and stew a quart of rhubarb and reduce it to a pulp with half a pint of water, four tablespoonsful of sugar and the grated rind of one lemon, rubbing it through a sieve, and let it become quite cold. Then add to it one and a half cupsful of whipped cream, or make a custard with one pint of milk and two eggs, flavoring it with one teaspoonful of vanilla extract; let the custard cool before adding to the fruit and put a little grated nutmeg with it.—Philadelphia Press.

JOHN H. SANDERSON

Died in New York on Thursday, May 13.

CONVICTED OF FRAUD

In Connection With State Capitol Contract—The Fourth Implicated in Scandal to Die.

John H. Sanderson, the convicted state capital contractor, died in his carriage while driving in New York Thursday evening. His death was due to heart disease, complicated by Bright's disease. Worries regarding his trial is believed to have hastened his death.

Mr. Sanderson lived at Sherry's for some months following his indictment at Harrisburg Thursday, as directed by his physician, and he was assisted to his carriage, and it was while the horses were trotting through the park that he collapsed.

He is the fourth of the men implicated in the capitol graft cases who have died since the exposure of that gigantic fraud. The others are former State Treasurer William L. Mathues, George F. Payne, who had the contract for the building, and James C. Jeffries, a clerk in the Auditor General's office, who was a witness.

Guilty of Conspiracy
Mr. Sanderson was convicted in Harrisburg in March of 1908. He was found guilty of having conspired with state officials to defraud the state out of more than $5,000,000 in connection with the construction and the furnishings of the capitol building.

Sanderson appealed from the jury's verdict of guilty found against him and W. L. Mathues and William P. Snyder, former Auditor General, and James M. Shumaker, who had been superintendent of public grounds and buildings. These men were indicted following a report made by a legislative investigating committee which found that the state had paid many millions too much for the furnishings of its new capitol building.

Previous to the trial and conviction of Sanderson he had been at the head of a large contracting firm, with offices on Chestnut Street, Philadelphia. He suffered a stroke of paralysis after his conviction.

It was in the midst of the capitol exposures that Sanderson married Miss Angeline M. Bray, daughter of the late William Kirk Bray. The wedding took place December 27, 1906, at Waverly Heights, the home of the bride's mother, near Glenside, Pa. To escape the attention which he attracted as one of the men implicated in the capitol scandal, Sanderson and his bride went to New York, where they engaged palatial quarters at Sherry's.

The re-trial was once postponed on account of Sanderson's ill health.

Sanderson Prince of "Trimmers"
Sanderson was alleged to have collected more than $5,250,000 for lighting fixtures, marble, "mahogany," wainscoting and other furnishings. He was a member of the Union League of Philadelphia and served as an aide on the military staff of Governor Beaver many years ago, still retaining the title of "colonel."

Pineules are for Backache, and bring quick relief to lumbago, rheumatism, fatigue and all other symptoms of Kidney diseases. They are a tonic to the entire system and build up strength and health. Price 50c and $1. Sold by Ed. D. Heckerman.

The Sea Hate
Soft it sings in shimmering ripples, glad beneath the golden day.

With a laugh among the dune grass, as it flings its jewel spray; But I hate its smiles and whispers, for beneath the white curled crests

Lies the great black heart of terror and the wrath that never rests.

Hidden from the blessed daylight, in its caves it heaves and throbs. With a dreadful choking angle and a sound of dying sob;

And the long, dark, naming seaweed, lured on its ebb and flow,

Is like hair of drowned women whelmed within the underflow.

Through the pale green dusks of twilight from the rolling mystic line,

Comes a chant of fear and beauty, calling sweet to me and mine;

But I flee the siren music of the cruel luring flood,

For its doom is in its message and the answer in my blood.

Bedford Gazette

ESTABLISHED IN 1805

S. A. VAN ORMER,
Editor and Publisher.

The Bedford Gazette is a model among country newspapers.—New York World.

The Gazette is the leading newspaper of Bedford County and its circulation is far ahead of any of its contemporaries. As an advertising medium it is one of the best in this part of the state.

Regular subscription price per year $1.50, payable in advance. Cards of Thanks, 50c; Resolutions, $1.00.

All communications should be addressed to

Gazette Publishing Co.,
Bedford, Pa.

FRIDAY MORNING, MAY 21, 1909.

Among those who have been disposed to guess on the Governor's motive for vetoing the State Highway bill—his own pet project—that fellow may not be wide of the mark who thinks the Pennsylvania Railroad had a finger in the pie.

The "Friends of the tariff" are having a great time in Washington revising the schedules. Uncle Sam, of course, pays all expenses of the extra session of Congress, but to all present appearances the consumers of the nation will derive little benefit as a result of their deliberations, mellowed by trust influences.

THE FIRST GUN FIRED

Treasurer Bolger fired the first gun in the campaign against The Gazette when he placed the treasurer's route in two Republican papers last week—without any authority whatever from the County Commissioners, whose right and duty it is to select the papers in which county advertising for which they have to pay shall be placed.

But Mr. Bolger's action, which would have kept from the Democrats of the county knowledge of the time and place of his visits to the several townships and boroughs of the county, was not sanctioned by the Board of Commissioners. Knowing that Democrats as well as Republicans have taxes to pay, and desiring to serve all the people of the county as public officers, they authorized the publication of the route in The Gazette, thus displaying reason and fairness in the discharge of their duty to the public, for which they are to be commended. They are not the tools of a little coterie of narrow politicians who are striving to silence all opposition and to discriminate against those who do not hold the same political opinions.

The history of the case, briefly, to date is:

During the campaign of 1905 The Gazette was threatened with having all county printing taken from it if we succeeded in electing any part of the fusion ticket then in the field. We did not swerve from our duty, and we never have had cause to regret our course.

During the recent session of the Legislature, Senator Miller presented a bill to repeal a former bill requiring legal advertising in this county to be placed in the two papers having the largest general circulation, and legalizing the placing of such advertising in any two papers.

The bill passed the Senate under Senator Miller's direction and the House, of which Hon. George W. Oster was a member, hence with his knowledge and consent.

Three-fourths of the lawyers practicing at the local bar petitioned His Honor, Governor Stuart, not to sign the bill, but he did, despite the fact that it had been vetoed by Governor Pennypacker, a lawyer, on the ground that he could see no better way of reaching the people than by using the papers having the largest circulation. The rest is known.

The readers of The Gazette need have no fear because of the change of the law that anything will be kept from their gaze, for there is nothing to prevent our printing even advertisements as news.

Minister Charged With Bigamy

From a St. Louis paper of Saturday we learn that Rev. Crozier Graham Adams has been accused of bigamy, he being said to have three wives,—one in Sayville, L. I., one in Canada, and one in St. Louis. The last named, Mrs. Ellen Maxwell Adams, will likely be the prosecutrix. Rev. Adams married Miss Maxwell while pastor of a St. Louis church in May 1905 and came here to visit his father, Rev. C. G. Adams, D. D., then pastor of St. James' Episcopal Church. They remained for two months and on his return to St. Louis was forced to resign. When their son was but five months old the wife returned to her parents, while Rev. Adams had a pastorate in Connecticut. Since January 1, 1907, they have been separated, at which time he wrote his father-in-law to return the manuscripts of his sermons, but keep his wife and child. Her experience, she says, as the wife of Rev. Adams was very bitter.

We are thankful that such things do not often occur in the ministry.

Sunday School Convention

A very well arranged program was carried out at Schellsburg on Saturday by the Napier District Sunday School Association in the Reformed Church of that place. Among the many who attended were six ministers, ten superintendents, and twenty delegates. The convention appreciated the attendance and help of W. S. Lysinger of Bedford and Capt. I. K. Little of Saxton.

The officers elected for the ensuing year are: President, S. H. Mickel; Vice President, Isaiah Hoover; Secretary, C. W. Blackburn; Statistical Secretary, J. A. Cuppett; Treasurer, Miss Vinie Blackburn; Superintendent of Teacher Training Department, Rev. L. B. Rittenhouse; Superintendent of Adult Class Organization, Rev. C. Gumbert; Superintendent of Home Department, G. W. Taylor; Superintendent of Cradle Roll Department, Miss Fredricka Crissman.

HECKERMAN LETTER

A Pathetic Picture of the Effect of Rum.

Huntington, W. Va., May 16, '09. A young lady from over in Ohio came to this city yesterday to see the circus and the styles of hats and dress as worn by these West Virginia ladies. She saw and was seen, and on her return home told her mother of the show and painted all that she could think of in glowing colors. When she stopped for breath her mother said, "Well, Sarah, how about the style of hats worn this spring by the ladies." She gasped and said, "Well, mother, I don't honestly believe that there is any style; each lady you see has a style of her own."

This is what Dad thought as he sat at the dinner table this lovely Sunday here at the Florentine Hotel, where the bon-ton and four hundred all come for their mid-day feed on Sunday. Looking over the large dining room one could see all shapes and styles of hats, ranging from the postage stamp covered with flowers, to the dainty turban with a couple of Aunt Peggy's old gray goose's quills in it, to the bread basket, inverted and covered with flowers, or even worse, for some looked as if they had a big wooden bread bowl upside down on their false foundations. Honest John, it is laughable to see the numerous shapes of the ladies' hats now-a-days!

On next Tuesday there is to be an election here between the wets and dries and 'tis hard to tell which way it will go. The dries have been incessantly working for a long time and their hopes are soaring high since Ashland, Ky., twelve miles away, voted dry a few weeks ago by about two hundred. Here is a true case that happened only a week ago. A man, Mr. Blank, who lives with his wife and three children near big Sandy Junction and who is a rafter by profession, left home Friday morning to go to Cattlesburg, Ky., to get some money due him for work that he had done; before leaving home his good wife said, "George, the meal is all and there is nothing to eat for the children or myself." He left and returned the next night (Saturday), got up early Sunday, took a drink out of a bottle that he had and then went out to look over the land about him. While out he met an old friend and they stood and talked when he asked his friend to go along to the house and have a bite of breakfast. After they reached the house the husband said to his wife that she should get some breakfast for the two; she stared a moment; two big tears rolled down her pale cheeks and she with trembling voice said, "Why, George there is nothing in the house to eat; not even a spoonful of meal. You know I a spoonful of meal. You know I we had nothing."

George said, "Well, John, we will have a nip anyway," and walking to his saddle bags, opened them up, and showed four quart bottles of whiskey.

John said, "No, George, I'll have none and I'll never take another drink; and more, I'll vote for the dries." A case such as this makes a man study.

There seems to be a general effort in all parts of the state to get rid of liquor and gambling in all its forms. The prosecuting attorney and the chief of police, by their recent drastic action, have done much to rid Huntington of the gamblers, who play all sorts of games. The first step in the right direction was taken when the courts entered an order in regard to issuing a license that divorced the saloon from the room where tables and chairs were convenient, or where games were or could be played. 'Tis said that there are several hundred men in this city who are directly interested in the nefarious business, and if they get the city dry, these will lessen in number very fast.

I have written you of the weather and crops, but as I come north I find the season very backward, the continuous rains of the past few weeks have been a great set-back to the farmers all along the Ohio River, in putting in their spring crops.

Dad was in the cyclone that struck Cairo, Ill., ten days ago, when some forty-five homes were completely blown over and as many more were badly damaged. He was in a train crossing the very high bridge over the Mississippi when the train rocked as if it were going over into the river, and he was scared quite a little. He is pushing north as fast as possible.

Yours truly,

M. P. Heckerman.

The Tailor-Dressed Man Gets In.

We are not content to sit idly by and let any man suffer the humiliation of poorly-fitting clothes because he does not know The Royal Tailor System. That is the purpose of this big advertisement—To let every last clothes wearer in this town know that now he can have his clothes made to his own order at a price he can afford; that there is a master measure-taker here at this store waiting to take his measure and a Royal craftsman in Chicago or New York waiting to tailor his cloth over those measures in the latest styles.

Deep down in your heart you have always coveted tailor-made clothes, every man has. Some men may have smothered Pride and accepted a factory-made substitute because of fancied economy. But the envy of the man with a good tailor lies in-rooted in every untailored clothes wearer.

That envy need no longer remain ungratified in you. Here is a tailoring service that, because of its enormous output, its national field, is bringing the best hand-tailoring within the purse reach of all.

We have 500 beautiful Spring Woolens ready to show you. Call and see them to-day.

SUMMER TRIPS AFAR AND NEAR

Summer days are coming fast. Already vacation days are being discussed in the home and in the office, and in a few weeks the annual exodus to country, seashore and mountain will have begun.

America abounds with delightful summering places, in valley, on mountain and beside the sea—thousands of resorts whither went the pilgrims in search of pleasure and recreation.

Pennsylvania Railroad ticket agents now have on sale excursion tickets to the greater number of these resorts; by the first week in June there will be about eight hundred points covered by Pennsylvania Railroad summer excursion tickets.

From the rock-bound bays of Newfoundland to the sunny slopes of the Virginia shores; from the White Mountains of New Hampshire to the Cumberland Mountains of Tennessee; along the forty beaches of New Jersey; even to the far coast of the Pacific Ocean, these summer resorts stand ready to entertain the transient or all-summer guest.

Any Pennsylvania Railroad Ticket Agent will cheerfully give information concerning routes and fares to these resorts, enabling summer pilgrims to plan their outing at a minimum of time and cost.

Information may also be secured by addressing Geo. W. Boyd, General Passenger Agent, Broad Street Station, Philadelphia; C. Studds, D. P. A., 263 Fifth Avenue, New York City; Wm. Pedrick, Jr., D. P. A., 1433 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia; Thos. E. Watt, D. P. A., 401 Fourth Avenue, Pittsburgh; B. P. Fraser, D. P. A., 307 Main Street, Buffalo; H. Hasson, Jr., D. P. ## WHAT TO WEAR.

Jumper Frock Still Worn by Young Girls—Bordered Fabrics.
The jumper frock is still a favorite for young girls. It is modified by having the waist line raised at the back. There are many fabrics with borders in a deeper tone, but not in another color. White and black are intermingled in a curious and wonderful way. Many designs and weavings are used to make these two colors appear in a novel manner.

DAINTY PRINCESS FROCK.

A charming little chain of silver set with rhinestones close together and imbedded in a ring setting costs $12. The workmanship is so skillful that the chain can scarcely be told from an extravagantly priced one.

The new bar pin is used to catch the lower edges of the turnover collar and the jabot under it. It is in the shape of a new moon. The crescent is slight in its curves, not wide even at the center, and its ends are sharp.

The pretty dress illustrated can be made from either tub or voolen materials. The yoke and princess front panel are in one and may be ornamented with braid, buttons or hand embroidery. The guimpe is made separately and can be finished with long or three-quarter sleeves.

A pattern of this dress may be had in five sizes—for girls from four to fourteen years of age. Send 10 cents to this office, giving number (469), and it will be promptly forwarded to you by mail.

WHAT FASHION DECREES.

Bordered Materials Difficult to Handle Successfully.

Bordered effects, the most trying of designs, are seen in almost all of the new materials. They are so charming, too, that they are sure to attract the average woman. She should be on her guard, for there are few materials more difficult to manipulate, and only the skillful dressmaker can handle them successfully.

Amateur dressmakers will find better results if when pressing seams, tucks, etc., a newspaper folded several times is placed between the iron and the article to be pressed.

Black neapolitan straw hats will be ultra smart in the summer. Shirley poppies are a favorite trimming for these hats. A beautiful trimming for a brown hat is a long brown quill shading from the softest mushroom tint to deep wood color, with a hint of gold at the very ends.

The suit seen in the sketch is a smart one for little boys. It is easy to launder and to make.

Eat What

You want of the food you need
Kodol will digest it.

You need a sufficient amount of good wholesome food and more than this you need to fully digest it.

Else you can't gain strength, nor can you strengthen your stomach if it is weak.

You must eat in order to live and maintain strength.

You must not diet, because the body requires that you eat a sufficient amount of food regularly.

But this food must be digested, and it must be digested thoroughly. When the stomach can't do it, you must take something that will help the stomach.

The proper way to do is to eat what you want, and let Kodol digest the food.

Nothing else can do this. When the stomach is weak it needs help; you must help it by giving it rest, and Kodol will do that.

SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS.

Our Guarantee

Go to your druggist today, and purchase a dollar bottle, and if you can honestly say, that you did not receive any benefits from it, after using the entire bottle, the druggist will refund your money to you without question or delay.

This offer applies to the large bottle only and to but one in a family.

We could not afford to make such an offer, unless we positively knew what Kodol will do for you.

It would bankrupt us.

The dollar bottle contains 2½ times as much as the fifty cent bottle.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Lesson VIII.—Second Quarter,
For May 23, 1909.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, Acts xv, 1-35.
Memory Verses 28, 29—Golden Text,
Acts xv, 11—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

[Copyright, 1909, by American Press Association.]

Then, as now, the whole world lay in the wicked one, and to be a friend of the world meant to be the enemy of God, but from the world here and there God, by His Spirit through His servants, was gathering a people for His name, the church of God which He hath purchased with His own blood (verse 14; chapter xx, 28), a people not of the world whose citizenship is in heaven, strangers and pilgrims here because a part of Him who represents all believers before God. He is the only true center of His church, the heavenly center, but there are many earthly centers, and at the time of our lesson there were two great centers, Jerusalem and Antioch, supposed to be in perfect accord. At the former the apostles still lived, not having been scattered abroad, while the latter became the missionary center from which Paul and the others set forth on their missionary tours. The apostles at Jerusalem were supposed to have the truth on all matters concerning the church, as they had personally known and been intimate with that Lord.

Since the days of Cain there have always been false teachers, perverting the truth, holding down the truth and teaching everything but the truth for various reasons—for self exaltation, to please men, for money, etc.—but sometimes blindly fancying that they were indeed standing for the truth. The following passages show them up quite fully: Isa. xxix, 13; xxx, 9-12; Jer. xxiii, 21, 26; Ezek. xxxiv, 1, 2; Acts ix, 29, 30; II Tim. iv, 3, 4; II Pet. ii, 1-3; Jude 4, 11. The false teachers of our lesson insisted that no one could be saved unless they were circumcised according to the law of Moses, thus teaching that the finished work of Christ was really not finished or not sufficient in itself for salvation, but needed some goodness or obedience on the part of the believer to supplement it. These teachers were believers of some sort (verse 5), but did not understand the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ (verse 11) nor the forgiveness of sin through His blood alone. They did not seem to know that Abraham was saved before he was circumcised and that circumcision was a seal of the righteousness which he already had by faith (Rom. iv, 9-11).

There are many today who do not believe that by virtue of the atonement of the Lord Jesus He is made unto all who receive Him wisdom, righteousness, sanctification and redemption (I Cor. i, 30); that by the deeds of the law no one can be justified in the sight of God, but that Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth (Rom. iii, 20; x, 4). Paul and Barnabas stood for these foundation truths and disputed with the teachers from Judaea about them, but the church at Antioch decided to send Paul and Barnabas and some others to the apostles and elders at Jerusalem about this question (verse 2). On their way they declared the conversion of the gentiles as they had seen on their first tour and thus caused great joy to all the brethren. And when they reached Jerusalem they told to the church there all things that God had done with them (verse 4; compare xiv, 27). It is indeed worth while and a soul uplifting theme to show His wonderful works that He hath done, to talk of all His wondrous works, to declare His doings among the people (Ps. lxxviii, 4; cv, 2; Isa. xli, 4). All else is forgotten as thus we magnify Him and exalt His holy name.

But we must attend the council meeting at Jerusalem, where the apostles and elders and the church have gathered officially to consider the matters about which the delegates have come from Antioch. After much talk and disputing they settle down to business more quietly, and Peter gives his testimony concerning his visit to Caesarea, to the home of Cornelius, and how as they heard the word of the gospel God gave them the Holy Ghost even as He had to the Jews at Pentecost, and he urged upon the council that there is but one salvation for Jew or gentile—namely, by the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ. Paul and Barnabas then declared the miracles and wonders God had wrought among the gentiles by them. James then summed up the case, and the result is given in the letter of verses 23-29. This letter they send to Antioch by Paul and Barnabas, commending them for their zeal, even to the laying down of their lives if necessary, and with them they send Judas and Silas to confirm the contents of the letter by their personal testimony (verses 25, 26, 27). They condemn the false teaching and set aside circumcision and the keeping of the law as essential to salvation, and they send the letter as not only from them, but from the Holy Ghost (verse 28).

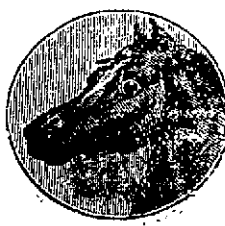

Thus these messengers carried joyful tidings everywhere and great encouragement to simple faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. If the decisions of all church councils were as wise and helpful it would be worth while holding them, but the greater number of them nowadays may be covered by the first line of verse 7 and are too largely a waste of precious time.

Aunt Sally's Beehives.

(Copyright, 1908, by T. C. McClure.)

When Aunt Sally Bently came to the church there were no cushions in the pews. She offered to stand half the expense of providing them. Deacon Hastings was consulted. He had contributed half the lumber to build the church and the two stoves that heated it, and he was the boss. He said he wanted no changes. Aunt Sally said she'd get even.

Just what Aunt Sally meant by her half threat soon developed. She came to church lugging a big feather pillow under her arm, and the pillow was used in her pew for a cushion. She had come in late, and the sight of her walking up the aisle with the pillow was a novelty. It was noted; it was scandalous—that is, Deacon Hastings so considered it, and he opened his batteries as soon as the benediction was pronounced. Never in all his life had he heard of such a thing, and he hoped for the good of the cause and the morals of society the pillow would be left at home thereafter.

"Look a-here, deacon," answered Aunt Sally, "I was watching you all through the sermon, and you was hatching around on the hard seat like a boy on tacks. You may continue to hatch if you want to, but I shan't. This pillow will come with me every Sunday until we have new cushions. I don't believe the Lord is going to punish any one for wanting to be comfortable in church."

"But our forefathers stood up to worship," argued the deacon.

"Yes, I know, and I guess they got more religion in their legs than in their souls. If you don't want me to come to meeting you can say so, but if I come the pillar comes along."

The deacon said it was a rank case of heresy, and he would have put her out if he could have secured any support. All others advised him to let the matter go, and for three months Aunt Sally and her pillow were features of the morning service. But she wasn't satisfied with her victory. Summer was coming on, and the flies were coming about, and she boldly broached the subject of protecting the church with screen doors and windows.

"And make a complete surrender to Satan!" shouted the good old deacon as he grew red in the face.

"Don't you try to keep flies out of your house?" she asked.

"But my house is not a church. If the Lord wills it that flies shall enter this sanctuary it is not for us to keep them out."

"I saw you batting at one that wanted to light on your nose last Sunday." "Then I shall ask forgiveness for it. Sister Bently, you have almost disorganized this church with your feather pillows and other ideas, and you must go no further. We were years in driving Satan and his temptations out, and now they must stay out."

"I'll pay half on the screens," she persisted.

"You would probably pay half to have a fiddle introduced here to help out the singing, but that will never be. If I had to open a screen door to get into this church I never could feel right in my conscience thereafter."

Aunt Sally went home to do some thinking. She hadn't far to go, and the barn on her place was still nearer. The flies had really become a nuisance, and, though fans were permitted, the deacon had a scowl for those who waved them too vigorously. And, besides, it is a trick to fan the back of one's neck and keep a bluebottle fly at a distance. She felt that she must adopt some heroic measure to call attention to the nuisance, and after three or four days the idea came to her. She had half an acre of ground around her house, and she decided that a couple of hives of bees would give the place a more homelike look. She therefore engaged a man with a team to go forth among the farmers and make a purchase.

Just whether the good woman timed the man to get back on a Saturday night will never be known, but it did come out that she advised him to leave his wagon and the hives in the alley near the church over Sunday. And, suspiciously enough, some folks thought she did not attend church on Sunday. It rained Saturday, and her rheumatism was worse.

Sunday morning brought hot weather. There was the usual congregation, and doors and windows stood open, and the flies frolicked. By no possibility could Aunt Sally have known that a certain boy would come loafing along that street at 11 o'clock on his way to the river. Neither could she have told that he would halt on seeing the hives and the bees flying around and after two or three minutes pick up three or four rocks and send them against the hives with a smash. Of course the bees resented it. They weren't taking any sass off a tow headed boy. The trouble, however, was that the boy put on rapid transit and got away. In hunting around for his trail the bees found the open doors and windows of the church, and they reasoned that one kind of meat was as good as another for them, and they entered. Three minutes later the congregation was going out. They went out the handiest way and without decorum. There were shouts and shrieks and walls, and the two doctors in the village had their hands full for the next three days.

Somehow or other Satan didn't come into possession. He didn't two weeks later when the building was screened, nor six weeks later when the pews were cushioned. They even put in a furnace and parlor organ and painted the building in time.

For the Baby

When the baby has to take a dose of castor or cod liver oil, a method far better than holding its nose is to place a few drops of lemon vinegar on the spoon before pouring in the oil. The objectionable flavor of the oil is destroyed in this way and its sticking to the spoon prevented. Another good suggestion is to place a small piece of ice on the baby's tongue before giving him the oil, as the cold blunts his sense of taste for the moment.

To remove a splinter from a child's hand fill a large-mouthed bottle full of hot water and hold the injured finger in the steam arising from the water. The steam draws the flesh and, aided by gentle pressure, the splinter will come out in a short while.

To break the baby of the habit of putting buttons and other miscellaneous articles in its mouth, coat several of the articles he seems to be the most fond of with quinine, and he will soon learn to avoid them because of their nasty taste.

Hopewell

May 19—It is reported that John O. Foster of Johnstown was injured in the mines near that place. He formerly lived here and is a brother of H. T. Foster of Bedford.

A son of D. F. Harclerode fell while skating at the rink on Saturday evening and broke his arm near the wrist joint.

Saturday, the 15th inst., was pay day for a very few who happened to have just a little work, but evidences of drunkenness were very noticeable, as usual. Some one must suffer when men spend their small earnings in this manner. It is usually the children in such families that suffer and are not properly clothed or fed. It is high time we were having a good, straight, no-license campaign in this county.

Mrs. Reese, wife of our minister, Rev. William Reese, arrived here last Saturday.

The Dudley baseball team crossed bats with our boys on the home grounds on Friday last. The score was 6 to 2 in favor of the visitors.

A young daughter arrived at the home of Irwin Ford last Friday.

William Benner's horse, attached to the meat wagon, became frightened, at something near Langdondale today (Wednesday) and ran off. The wagon was badly broken up but the horse was not much injured.

The W. C. T. U. recently organized by Mrs. Masters of Pittsburgh, met Tuesday evening. A number of new members were added to the list.

The time for the nominations for the various county officials to be elected is drawing near and it should be the duty of every voter to select the very best men possible to fill these positions.

A Fine Catch

Edward Gates of Huntingdon, mail clerk on the H. & B. T. R. R., made a good catch of trout on Tuesday in Yellow Creek. He succeeded in getting forty-nine sparkling beauties. He gave twenty to his Hopewell friends and took the others home. Laid end to end, these measured nineteen feet in length, none being less than ten inches and some were fifteen inches in length.

"Pressure-Salesmanship" IS NOT PRACTICED HERE!

Many a time you've started out to buy some clothes with a pretty definite idea of what you wanted. You've gone to "your store," you've told "your salesman" about it; and you've bought something else. Why? Not because you changed your mind. Not because your first idea of what you wanted was wrong. But—because the store didn't have what you wanted. And you didn't like to seem cranky, or obstinate. So you earned the approval of your salesman-friend by buying something the store HAD, in place of something YOU wanted.

At this store we try to realize your own ideas about clothes. We try to have it in stock—if it's something modish and distinctive. We don't want you to sacrifice your own judgment, or taste, or pre-conceived idea. No store earns your friendship by making "the sale" of more importance than anything else—by selling you something against your better judgment. There's a certain sort of pressure-salesmanship that will accomplish that, you know. But it's not practiced here.

Do you want a summer suit for $12, worth $15?

The Weather Test Proves B. P. S. the Best.

Any paint looks well when first applied. The proof of quality lies in the way paint lasts through freezing, thawing, hail, rain, and the blistering heat of summer.

B. P. S. STANDS THE TEST

The best of materials, carefully mixed and thoroughly ground, make B. P. S. a weather-resisting paint that, when properly applied, will not wash off, chalk, crack nor peel when the weather gets at it.
